PRESS RELEASE

PSOJ CONGRATULATES SECURITY FORCES

The Private Sector Organisation of Jamaica (PSOJ) Council of Presidents congratulates the security forces on their substantial drug captures in Trelawny on Wednesday, 28th August and two weeks previously at Port Royal Harbour. We welcome the benefits that have arisen from the collaboration of the Jamaica Constabulary Forces with the crime fighting forces in Colombia, the USA and UK.

The Narcotics Division of the Jamaica Constabulary Force, headed by Senior Superintendent Carl Williams must be commended for its activities, including the timely and public burning of the Port Royal cocaine, as well as the arrests made in connection with these two cases.

We also congratulate the JCF on its continuing programme to search out and discharge those members of the force involved in wrongdoing. Every police force includes rogue cops ... this is almost inevitable. What is unacceptable is not rogue cops, but the inability or the unwillingness to discharge them.

We, the members of the Council of Presidents, encourage the government and the police force to continue their efforts to fight against the scourge of crime and drug prevalence in our society.
