1.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Exchange Control Act. Short

(2) The power of the Governor-General in Council to make transitional provisions consequential on the making of an order by the Minister under this Act (as hereinafter provided) shall extend to the revocation, in consequence of any proclamation made under this subsection, of any of the provisions of the Jamaica Defence (Finance) Regulations, 1942, or of any regulation amending the same.

2.—(1) In this Act, except so far as the contrary is expressly provided or the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them, that is to say— Interpretation.

(a) any policy by which the payment of money is assured on death (except death by accident only) or the happening of any contingency dependent on human life; and

(b) any policy securing the payment of an immediate annuity,

and the reference in this definition to the occurrence of a specified event which is certain to happen shall include the occurrence, which is certain to happen, of one of specified events none of which by itself is certain to happen;

“prescribed” means prescribed, for the purposes of the provision in question, by order of the Minister;

“scheduled territories” has the meaning ascribed to it by section 3;

(2) Any provision of this Act (however worded) the effect of which is to prohibit the doing of any act where a person to or by whom the act is to be done or who stands in a specified relation to any property possesses any specified attribute as to residence or otherwise shall, where the act is done to or by two or more persons or, as the case may be, where two or more persons stand jointly in that relation to the property, operate to prohibit the doing of that act if any of those persons possess that attribute; and any provision of this Act imposing an obligation on any person to do an act if he possesses any specified attribute as to residence or otherwise shall, in relation to any act which can only be done by two or more persons jointly—

- (a) where all those persons possess that attribute, operate to impose a joint obligation on all of them to do the act; and
- (b) where some only of them possess that attribute, operate to impose a separate obligation on each one of them who possesses that attribute to do all he can to secure the doing of the act.

(4) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as requiring the Minister to pay any sum otherwise than in Jamaican dollars or otherwise than in the Island, and any provision of this Act requiring the Minister to pay any sum to any person shall, where that sum is in a specified currency, be construed as a provision that the Minister shall pay to that person the amount in Jamaican dollars which he would have received for the specified currency if he had sold it to an authorized dealer in pursuance of an offer made under section 4 at the time when the said sum is paid.

(5) The obligations and prohibitions imposed by this Act shall, subject to the express limitations contained therein, apply to all persons, notwithstanding that they are not Commonwealth citizens.

3.—(1) Except with the permission of the Minister, no person, other than an authorized dealer, shall, in the Island, buy or borrow any gold or foreign currency from, or sell or lend any gold or foreign currency to, any person other than an authorized dealer.

S. 2 (b).

Dealings in gold and foreign currency.

(2) Except with the permission of the Minister, no person resident in the scheduled territories, other than an authorized dealer, shall, in the Island, do any act which involves, is in association with or is preparatory to buying or borrowing any gold or foreign currency from, or selling or lending any gold or foreign currency to, any person outside the Island.

4.—(1) Every person in the Island who is entitled to sell, or to procure the sale of, any gold, or any foreign currency to which this section applies, and is not an authorized dealer, shall offer it, or cause it to be offered, for sale to an authorized dealer, unless the Minister consents to his retention and use thereof or he disposes thereof to any other person with the permission of the Minister.

The foreign currency to which this section applies is such foreign currency (hereafter in this Act referred to as "specified currency") as may from time to time be specified by order of the Minister.*

(2) If a person who has obtained the consent of the Minister to his retention and use of any gold or specified currency, and has stated in an application for the consent that he requires it for a particular purpose, no longer requires the gold or currency for that purpose, the provisions of subsection (1) shall thereupon apply to him in relation to that gold or currency as if the Minister had revoked his consent to the retention and use thereof.

(3) A person who acquires any gold or specified currency from an authorized dealer shall be treated for the purposes of this section as if the Minister had consented to the retention and use by him of that gold or currency (subject, however, to any conditions notified to him in accordance with subsection (3) of section 3), and as if any statement made by him in an application for that gold or currency as to the purpose for which he requires it had been made by him in an application for the Minister's consent to his retention and use thereof.

(4) Where a person has become bound under this section to offer or cause to be offered any gold or specified currency for sale to an authorized dealer, he shall not be deemed to comply with that obligation by any offer made or caused to be made by him, if the offer is an offer to sell at a price exceeding that authorized by the Minister, or without payment of any usual and proper charges of the authorized dealer, or otherwise on any unusual terms.

(5) Where a person has become bound under this section to offer or cause to be offered any gold or specified currency for sale to an authorized dealer and has not complied with that obligation, the Minister may direct that that gold or currency shall vest in the Minister, and it shall vest in the Minister accordingly free from any mortgage, pledge or charge, and the Minister may deal with it as he thinks fit; but the Minister shall pay to the person who would but for the direction be entitled to the gold or currency such sum as he would have received therefor if he had sold it to an authorized dealer in pursuance of an offer made under this section at the time when the vesting occurred.

(6) In any proceedings in respect of a failure to comply with the provisions of this section, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that the gold or currency in question has not been offered for sale to an authorized dealer.

5.—(1) Every person in the Island by whom or to whose order (whether directly or indirectly) any gold or any specified currency in the form of notes is held in the Island but who is not entitled to sell it or procure its sale shall notify the Minister in writing that he so holds that gold or currency.

Travellers'
cheques,
etc.

6.—(1) This section applies to any document of a kind intended to enable the person to whom the document is issued to obtain foreign currency from some other person on the credit of the person issuing it, and in particular to any traveller's cheque or other draft or letter of credit so intended.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the person issuing a document to which this section applies, and the person to whom it is issued, shall be deemed respectively to sell and buy foreign currency and where foreign currency is obtained by means of the document to sell and buy that foreign currency.

S. 4.

(3) Any such document not expressed in terms of Jamaican dollars shall, if it is of a kind intended to enable the person to whom it is issued to obtain any specified currency, be treated also for the purposes of this Act as itself being specified currency.

S. 4.

(4) Every person in the Island who holds or to whose order there is held any document to which this section applies being a document expressed in terms of Jamaican dollars, shall encash it or cause it to be encashed in the scheduled territories with the person issuing it or with a banker, unless the Minister consents to his retention and use thereof and, where in his application for that consent he has stated that he requires it for a particular purpose, unless also he still requires it for that purpose.

(5) A person who acquires any document to which subsection (4) applies from an authorized dealer shall be treated for the purposes of that subsection as if the Minister had consented to the retention and use by him of that document (subject, however, to any conditions notified to him in accordance with subsection (3) of section 3), and as if any statement made by him in an application for that document as to the purpose for which he requires it had been made by him in an application for the Minister's consent to his retention and use thereof.

PART II. Payments

7. Except with the permission of the Minister, no person shall do any of the following things in the Island, that is to say—

Provided that—

- (b) do any act whereby he ceases to be a person bound to give effect to the instructions of another person in relation to the security, unless the person who theretofore instructed him is resident in the scheduled territories and not elsewhere.

(4) Where the holder of a security is not a nominee and is resident in the Island, then, except with the permission of the Minister, he shall not do any act whereby he becomes the nominee of another person in respect of the security, unless that other person is resident in the scheduled territories and not elsewhere.

(5) No person resident in the scheduled territories shall, in the Island, do any act which involves, is in association with or is preparatory to any such transaction outside the Island as is referred to in this section.

Deposit of

17.—(1) This section and section 18 shall apply to any security except—

- (a) a security which is registered in the Island otherwise than in a subsidiary register, and on which none of the dividends or interest is payable on presentment of a coupon; and

(2) It shall be the duty of every person by whom or to whose order (whether directly or indirectly) a certi-

cate of title is held in the Island, and of every person resident in the Island by whom or to whose order (whether directly or indirectly) a certificate of title is held outside the Island, to cause the certificate of title to be kept at all times, except with the permission of the Minister, in the custody of an authorized depositary, and nothing in this Part shall prohibit the doing of anything for the purpose of complying with the requirements of this subsection.

(3) Except with the permission of the Minister, an authorized depositary shall not part with any certificate of title or coupon required under this section to be in the custody of an authorized depositary:

Provided that this subsection shall not prohibit an authorized depositary—

(4) Except with the permission of the Minister, no capital moneys, interest or dividends shall be paid in the Island on any security except to or to the order of an authorized depositary having the custody of the certificate of title to that security, so, however, that this subsection shall not be taken as restricting the manner in which any sums lawfully paid on account of the capital moneys, interest or dividends may be dealt with by the person receiving them.

(5) Except with the permission of the Minister, an authorized depositary shall not do any act whereby he recognizes or gives effect to the substitution of one person for another as the person from whom he receives instructions in relation to a certificate of title or coupon, unless there is produced to him the prescribed evidence that he is not by so doing giving effect to any transaction which is prohibited by this Act.

(6) Where a certificate of title which under this section should for the time being be in the custody of an authorized depositary is not in the custody of an authorized depositary, then, except with the permission of the Minister, no person shall, in the Island, buy, sell, transfer, or do anything which affects his rights or powers in relation to the security, or do any act which involves, is in association with or is preparatory to any such transaction outside the Island.

(7) Except with the permission of the Minister, no person in or resident in the Island shall, in the case of a certificate of title with coupons (whether attached or on separate coupon sheets), detach any of the coupons otherwise than in the ordinary course for collection.

Additional provisions
as to deposited
certificates.

18.—(1) Where a certificate of title to a security is by section 17 required to be and is in the custody of an authorized depositary, the provisions of this section shall, except so far as the Minister otherwise directs, have effect in relation thereto until—

- (a) there are delivered to him the prescribed declarations as to the ownership of the security and the residence of the owners thereof; and

(b) in the case of a certificate of title which—

(i) would ordinarily be accompanied by coupons (whether attached or on separate coupon sheets); but

(ii) when it comes into the custody of the authorized depositary wants, in order to render it complete, any coupons which would not in the ordinary course have been attached for collection, there have also been deposited with him the coupons so wanting at the time when the certificate of title comes into his custody :

Provided that where the said declarations have been delivered to an authorized depositary and he has parted with the certificate of title, paragraph (a) shall not again apply on the certificate coming into the custody of another authorized depositary or again coming into his own custody.

(2) Except with the permission of the Minister, the authorized depositary shall not part with or destroy the certificate of title or any coupons belonging thereto, otherwise than as mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c) of the proviso to subsection (3) of section 17 or do any act whereby he recognizes or gives effect to the substitution of one person for another as the person from whom he receives instructions in relation thereto :

Provided that, where the person from whom an authorized depositary receives instructions in relation to any certificate of title becomes bankrupt in the Island or dies, this subsection shall not prohibit the authorized depositary from recognizing the Trustee in Bankruptcy or personal representative as the person entitled to give instructions in relation to the certificate of title.

(3) The authorized depositary shall place any capital moneys, dividends or interest on the security received by him to the credit of the person by virtue of whose authority he received them, but shall not permit any part of the sums received to be dealt with except with the permission of the Minister.

Special provisions as to dealings in certain securities.

19.—(1) The Minister may, if in his opinion there are circumstances rendering it necessary or expedient so to do, by order direct that this section shall apply to such securities as may be prescribed, being securities on which capital moneys, dividends or interest are payable in a specified currency or as respects which the holder has an option to require payment of any capital moneys, dividends or interest thereon in a specified currency.

(2) Except with the permission of the Minister, no person shall, in the Island, transfer, or do anything which affects his rights or powers in relation to any security to which this section applies, and no person resident in the scheduled territories shall, in the Island, do any act which involves, is in association with or is preparatory to any such transaction outside the Island.

Validation of certain transfers.

20.—(1) The title of any person to a security for which he has given value on a transfer thereof, and the title of all persons claiming through or under him, shall, notwithstanding that the transfer, or any previous transfer, or the issue of the security, was by reason of the residence of any person concerned other than the first-mentioned person prohibited by the provisions of this Act relating to the transfer or issue of securities, be valid unless the first-mentioned person had notice of the facts by reason of which it was prohibited.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1), the Minister may issue a certificate declaring, in relation to a security, that any acts done before the issue of the certificate purporting to effect the issue or transfer of the security, being acts which were prohibited by this Act, are to be, and are always to have been, as valid as if they had been done with the permission of the Minister, and the said acts shall have effect accordingly.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of any person to prosecution for any offence against this Act.

21.—(1) This Part shall apply, with such modifications (if any) as may be prescribed, in relation to any such document as is mentioned in subsection (2), as if the document created, and were the certificate of title to a security (hereafter in this Act referred to as a “secondary security”).

Application of Part III
to secondary securities.

(2) The documents referred to in subsection (1) are any letter of allotment which may be renounced, any letter of rights, any warrant conferring an option to acquire a security, any deposit certificate in respect of securities (but not including a receipt by an authorized depository for any certificate of title deposited in pursuance of this Part), and such other documents conferring, or containing evidence of, rights as may be prescribed.

22.—(1) In this Part—
